A list of courses for which St Catheriné’s accepts graduate students is available at https://www.ox.ac.uk/admissions/graduate/colleges/st-catherines-college.

All of these Graduate Scholarships may be held in conjunction with an award from another body other than another Oxford College and carry entitlement to limited High Table dining rights. They also carry entitlement to up to two years’ single accommodation on the main college site or in St Catheriné’s House (to be paid for by the recipient at the current room charge rate), which should be taken in the first two years of the scholarship.

Students at other colleges are eligible to apply for all of these scholarships, but would need to migrate to St Catheriné's to take up any of these scholarships if their application was successful.

All of these scholarships are open to new graduate students commencing graduate study at Oxford in October 2020, and to current graduate students who will have completed no more than two years of graduate research degree study at Oxford in October 2020.

Before awarding any Scholarship, the College must be satisfied that sufficient funding is available to cover course fees.

Applications should be sent by email to college.office@stcatz.ox.ac.uk, in a single PDF file, if possible, and should be single-spaced and in at least a 12 point font.

Applications must include, in the following order:

- A completed Graduate Scholarship Application Cover Form including the names and addresses of two referees (available to download at https://www.stcatz.ox.ac.uk/prospective-students/postgraduate-admissions/student-finance-and-scholarships/)
- A personal statement (one page maximum)
• A research outline accessible to non-specialists (up to 1,200 words). For taught courses, applicants may provide a statement of their academic interests and motivation for undertaking their course in place of a research outline. Alternatively, applicants for taught courses may provide a two-page personal statement in place of a one-page personal statement and research outline.

• A full curriculum vitae (two pages maximum)

Candidates should ask two people acquainted with their recent academic work to send references to the Academic Office at St. Catherine’s College to arrive by the closing date of Friday 13 March 2020. Referees should submit references by email if possible (email: college.office@stcatz.ox.ac.uk).

Alternatively, applicants who will be commencing a new graduate course in October 2020, may request in their application that the references submitted in support of their application to Oxford are used.

The College plans to interview short-listed candidates during the weeks ending Friday 24 April, Friday 1 May and Friday 8 May 2020 and expects to notify all applicants of the outcome of their applications during the week ending Friday 29 May 2020.
